

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

ATES

SON

NTS

an associate at Johnson, was chairperson for ciation's Young elphia County.

Development Group.

Weinstein Goss associate Eric G. Zajac

lectured on the Mental Health
 Procedures Act
 regarding standards
 for involuntary
 admissions for persons who are severely mentally disabled
 and in need of immediate treatment.

Zajac, who concentrates on personal injury litigation, addressed his remarks to the National Alliance of the Mentally Ill of Blair County.

A third Weinstein Goss associate, Theodore J. Kobus, discussed automobile insurance issues at a recent meeting of the Brookhaven Women's Club.

ZAJAC

Court Historical Society Welcomes Chief of Magistrate Judges

The Historical Society of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania will host its 12th annual Alfred F. Luongo Lecture in the Ceremonial Courtroom of the U.S. Courthouse at Sixth and Market streets on Monday, Dec. 14 at 4:30 p.m.

The lecture, titled "A Tradition of Excellence: The United States Magistrate Judges System," will be presented by Thomas C. Hnatowski, Chief of the Magistrate Judges Division of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. Chief Magistrate Judge James R. Melinson and Magistrate Judges Diane M. Welsh and Thomas J. Reuter will also deliver remarks on the history and future

Hnatowski, a graduate of Delaware and Washington College in Washington, D.C., served as an attorney in the judges division from 1985 to 1997, deputy chief of the Division from 1997 to 1998, and serving as chief of

The program will include wine and cheese reception.

Those interested in the Historical Society of the United States District Court should contact the court's